MEET THE MSBC SOCIAL ACTIONS MINISTRY

The Social Actions Ministry meets every 2nd Saturday from 9:30-10:30am in Room 210 at 1512 Woodlawn Drive.

#YOURVOICE MATTERS

- The steady high-pitched cry of a mother who has lost her son to gun violence.
- The rapid pulse of a domestic violence victim as she hides in the closet.
- The percussion of hands as a child finally gets their forever home with a foster parent.
- The melody of a whistle from a high school dropout as he opens his store for business.

The rhythm of the people is among us, always. It is our job to listen and take part in the song. God has given us direction. Isaiah 1:17 Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow.

The Social Actions mission is to empower under-served individuals in the community through prayer, research, resources, awareness and advocacy. If your gift is one of Helps, Mercy and Service - this can be especially rewarding. If you have interest in Social Actions Ministry, please join the group via InFellowship request or contact Sis. Charlee Childs via email: socialactions@msbcministries.org

The Week 42 Devotional

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ~ 1 John 1:9"

It's okay. God is waiting for you to confess it to Him, allow Him to purge you, and be forgiven. Don't you think it's time to forgive yourself?
